Agency Exhibits

Many agencies and resource groups come to our conference to share information. Participants will find great information on speakers and programs to bring to your campus and other educational materials that can help you in your health and safety efforts.

Agencies attending the Assembly pay an exhibit fee and registration fee to participate fully in our conference. We expect 900 participants from 150 institutions. In addition, exhibitors are featured in our publication which reaches over 2000 higher education professionals.

Exhibits are table-top style and will be set up adjacent to the conference registration/information area. Set up Thursday afternoon after 2 PM – Dismantle by Saturday evening after 6 PM.

All Exhibitors Must Register for the Conference Register Online at bacchusnetwork.org

On or Before Tuesday, October 13
$500 plus guest reg fee of $330

After Tuesday, October 13

Scholarships

Attention NEW Network affiliates! Founders Scholarship

In honor of the two founders of The BACCHUS Network, Tom Goodale and Gerardo Gonzalez, two scholarships are available for a free conference registration fee to the 2009 General Assembly. These scholarships will be awarded to two students from affiliate campuses chartered after January 1, 2008. Selection criteria will be based upon a written essay of no more than two pages that summarize the following:

- your campus leadership experiences
- your role as a peer educator on your campus
- your scholarship and academic performance
- why you should receive the scholarship

Attention Florida Peer Educators

In memory of Michael McNeil's grandmother, Grace McNeil and Kathryn Hansen, one scholarship is available for a free conference registration fee to the 2009 General Assembly. This scholarship will be awarded to one student from an affiliate campus in Florida. Selection criteria will be based upon a written essay of no more than two pages that summarize the following:

- your campus leadership experiences
- your role as a peer educator on your campus
- why you should receive the scholarship

Attention All Peer Educators

Due to a generous donation from one alumnus 6 scholarships are available for a free conference registration fee and a $500 travel reimbursement to the 2009 General Assembly. Peer educators who hold at least one other leadership position on campus are eligible. Selection criteria will be based upon a written essay of no more than two pages that summarize the following:

- how you will use the information learned at the conference to change your campus
- your current campus leadership experiences
- your role as a peer educator on your campus
- why you should receive the scholarship

Please include your name, campus mailing address, phone number, fax number, and email address.

Scholarship applications must be received in Denver no later than Monday, October 5th.
